

Miss Flora Payne Whitney Engaged to Son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlemagne Tower

Mr. Roderick Tower to Wed Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney.

Miss Flora Payne Whitney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney and one of the best known young women of society in New York and Newport, will become the bride of Mr. Roderick Tower of Philadelphia, Pa. Announcement of their engagement was made yesterday by her parents.

Miss Whitney, who has inherited the strong individuality of her parents, was born in this city in 1897. Her mother before her marriage to Mr. Whitney was Miss Gertrude Vanderbilt, daughter of Mr. Vanderbilt and the late Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt. Miss Whitney's brother is Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney, and her younger sister is Miss Barbara Whitney, who now is in her seventeenth year.

Having passed most of her life at the country homes of her parents in Westbury, L. I.; at Aiken, S. C., and in Newport, R. I., Miss Whitney followed a strong inclination toward the vigorous amusements of the open air. She is a proficient horsewoman and can drive her automobile. She also has participated in the social diversions of the younger set of society in New York and Newport, where, in her debutante year, Mrs. Whitney gave a brilliant dance for her.

When the United States entered the war she brigaded herself with other members of her social circle into local war relief work. She perfected herself in typewriting in the hope of seeing service with the Red Cross or of the Y. M. C. A. Later her proficiency in secretarial work won for her the position of voluntary assistant to Mrs. Edith McCormick at the headquarters of the Republican Women's National Executive Committee in Washington.

As a descendant of Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt she is a member of one of the largest of New York's family connections and has many relatives in England, who include the Dukes of Marlborough and Lord Queensborough. She is a grandniece of Mrs. William Douglas Sloane, Mrs. Elliott F. Shepard and William H. Vanderbilt Jr. She is a niece of Brig-Gen. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Reginald C. Vanderbilt and Countess Lazzarini Szechenyi.

Friendship between Miss Whitney and Tower families has existed for a number of years. The fiancée of Miss Whitney is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlemagne Tower

M. J. Walsh's Son LAST JUNIOR ASSEMBLY AND OTHER DANCES HELD

Bride Is Daughter of John J. Dillon, One Time Commissioner of Markets.

Yonkers was greatly surprised yesterday when it became known that Mr. George Walsh, son of Mr. Michael J. Walsh, a member of the State Tax Commission and once Mayor of Yonkers, and Miss Mary E. Dillon, daughter of Mr. John J. Dillon of 40 Riverside Drive, and one time State Commissioner of Markets, were married on last Wednesday night, very privately, after having celebrated a marriage license two weeks.

It was said last night by friends of the family that the young couple had been forgiven by Mr. and Mrs. Walsh, but that Mr. Dillon was withholding congratulations.

The bridegroom, who is 24 years old and who is attached to the passport bureau at the New York Custom House in the daytime and attends law classes at Fordham University at night, had been in love with Miss Dillon, who is 21 years old, almost a year, it was said by friends, and about three weeks ago they decided to cut the Gordian knot of parental objection to their marriage on account of youth. They obtained a license in the Yonkers City Hall and on last Wednesday night, attended by Mrs. Anna McCarthy and Mr. George McCarthy, cousins of Mr. Walsh, they drove to the Church of the Holy Trinity, where the Rev. Henry C. Curtin united them. They promptly visited Mr. Walsh's home and, finding his mother there, at once enjoyed her forgiveness and received her blessing.

Mr. and Mrs. Walsh now are at the Hotel Majestic in Central Park West.

SOCIAL SERVICE WORKER WED

Miss Helen Maud Taplin Married to Mr. D. A. Barry.

Announcement was made yesterday of the marriage of Miss Helen Maud Taplin, daughter of Mr. S. M. Taplin, of 100 Madison Avenue, and Mr. D. A. Barry, son of Mrs. Helen M. Barry of San Francisco, Cal., on Saturday, January 31. The ceremony was performed in Grace Church, this city, by the rector, Dr. Charles Leonard Stott.

The bride has been a prominent worker in the field of social service. She has been connected with many large movements pertaining to the betterment of working conditions for women workers. Before the war she was in charge of the Vacation Headquarters at 35 West Thirty-ninth street. During the war she supervised several of the Government plantations in connection with the housing, feeding and general welfare of the women munition workers. Since the war she has been actively interested in the employment problems resulting from the war.

Mr. Barry served with the British Army overseas for two years during the war. He attended Berkeley University and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Mrs. W. D. Sloane's Musicals.

Mrs. William Douglas Sloane had a reception with music yesterday afternoon at her home, 2 West Fifty-second street, about two hundred of her friends taking advantage of the opportunity to listen to a violin recital by Fritz Kreisler. Mr. Kreisler played numbers by Mendelssohn, Rimsky-Korsakov, Schubert, Dvorak, Chaminade, Paderewski and several of his own compositions. After the music, which was heard in the ball room, tea was served.

Social and Personal Notes.

Lieutenant-Commander Franklin P. Conner, U. S. N., is at the Hotel Astor with his bride, who was Miss Alvida Lowell of Washington, D. C. They were married in that city on Tuesday. She is the daughter of the late Major Delmar Lowell and Mrs. Lowell of Washington, D. C. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Conner of this city.

Mrs. T. Tasso Fischer will have a reception to-day in the Hotel Schuyler Arms for Miss Rebecca Anderson Gilroy of Walling, N. S. France, Mr. Philip J. Leary, Miss M. P. Fischer, Mr. George W. Hill and Miss Gertrude Wagner started for Europe on Thursday on board the Mauretania and will remain a week in France.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gresham have arranged to spend the coming summer in Newport, having rented through De Stie & Eldridge the Dresser cottage in Bellevue Court for the season.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

New York.

Owing to conditions of weather Mr. Charles H. Mackay has been obliged to postpone the dinner and dance for his daughter, Miss Katherine Mackay, arranged for to-night at Harbor Hill, his country place in Roslyn, L. I. The entertainment will be given later in March.

Mrs. Robert R. Livingston will give a dinner at her home, 11 Washington Square North, to-night for Miss Betty Flegg, a debutante.

Mrs. F. Norton Goddard will give a dance to-night at the Colony Club for her daughter, Miss Alice Whitthrop Goddard.

In the chapel of St. George's Church, Stuyvesant Square, this afternoon, Miss Elizabeth S. Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis S. Thompson, was married to Mr. Richard P. Blakely. A reception will follow at 303 Park Avenue.

Miss Catherine C. Noyes will give a tea and dance this afternoon at 468 Park Avenue for Miss Laura Blossom Gray, who will be married to Mr. Cameron O'Day Macpherson on February 14. Miss Noyes will be one of the bridesmaids at the wedding.

Mrs. Whitelaw Reid will start to-day for California for a stay of several weeks.

Mrs. Henry O. Havemeyer has been visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Havemeyer, at Lillip, L. I.

Mrs. Finley J. Shepard will not resume her position as secretary at her home, 575 Fifth Avenue, this year.

Mrs. Chester Griswold and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. L. Grand C. Griswold, will not go South, but will pass the remainder of the winter in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. James Laurens Van Alen will return to New York from St. Augustine, Fla., late in April.

Mr. Charles H. Strong and his daughter, Miss Margaret Strong, who are in Italy, will remain there indefinitely.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Scheffelin entertained friends at dinner last night.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Gould had the Rev. and Mrs. Herbert Shipman as guests at dinner last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Sablin had a dinner party last night at their home in East Sixty-second street.

Washington.

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson has accepted an invitation to attend the first performance of "Hullo Washington," an amateur revue to be produced on next Tuesday at the Marine Barracks in aid of the Children's Hospital.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Robert Lansing and the Italian Ambassador and Baroness Romano Aveszani were guests of Mrs. Charles S. Brown at dinner last night.

The Secretary of War and Mrs. Newton D. Baker were in a party which Major-Gen. and Mrs. James W. McAdams entertained last night at a dinner and dance given at the Officers' Club.

Senator and Mrs. Frank B. Kellogg had a dinner party last night.

Mrs. William M. Calder, wife of Senator Calder of New York, who was in the city for the winter, returned yesterday to her home in Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hay will arrive to-morrow to pass a few days with his brother-in-law and sister, Senator and Mrs. James W. Wadsworth, Jr.

Lieut. and Mrs. Glenn F. Jones announce the marriage of their sister, Miss Jane Langtry Morgan, to Mr. Jarrett Carleway on January 31, in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Brown and Mrs. John Francis White of Washington.

Mrs. George Howard has rented her house in Sixteenth street to Mr. and Mrs. J. Herbert Stabler.

Miss Frances Hoar, who was visiting Mrs. Frederick Henry Prince, Jr., on Long Island, has returned to Washington.

Diplomatic.

Mr. Jules J. Jusserand, French Ambassador, left Washington yesterday for New York for the winter.

Senora de Mathieu, wife of the Chilean Ambassador, held an informal reception yesterday at the embassy in Washington. Mme. Le Breton, wife of the Argentine Ambassador, and Mme. de Bismarck, wife of the Russian Ambassador, also were at home yesterday afternoon.

Capt. Yvonne Chaulot, Charge d'Affaires of the Legation of Montenegro, left Washington yesterday for New York on his way to Europe. He will go to Paris, where his wife, Mrs. Nicholas and his court are installed.

CHARLES W. HALLETT.

Charles W. Hallett, descendant of the family for which Hallett's Cove on Long Island Sound was named, died yesterday of pneumonia at St. John's Hospital. He was formerly in business in Astoria, but several years ago he moved to Greene County. He was in Astoria to visit friends when stricken with pneumonia. He is survived by his wife, three daughters and three sons.

MICHAEL J. DODSWORTH.

Michael J. Dodsworth, vice-president and treasurer of The Journal of Commerce and Commercial Bulletin, died suddenly yesterday morning at his home in Summit, N. Y., after an illness of about six weeks. Although born in England sixty years ago, Mr. Dodsworth spent practically all his life in this country. He was the son of William Dodsworth, who was a member of the New York Stock Exchange and later absorbed the Journal of Commerce, under his direction in 1893. From that time until his death he was connected intimately with these publications. He was a member of the official committee of the American Medical Congress of the World which was held at Washington the same year. He was also an honorary member of the American Academy of Medicine.

FREDERICK HOLBROOK.

A cable dispatch from Paris yesterday announced the death in that city of Frederick Holbrook, civil engineer. He was the son of the late Frederick Holbrook, who was president of the International Corporation in 1916 and was a year in Russia for the corporation. In March, 1918, he became president of the International Corporation and was in charge of the work at Hog Island for the remainder of that year. Early in 1919 the Corporation-American International Corporation was formed in New York. Mr. Holbrook formed the engineering firm of Holbrook & Rollins in New York. He was married to Mrs. L. M. Holbrook, his wife's name was L. M. Holbrook. He was born in 1861.

CHICAGO COMPANY REVIVES 'FALSTAFF'

Opera Comedy Sung Here for the First Time in Ten Years.

Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

"Falstaff" had been last sung in New York at the Metropolitan Opera House on February 16, 1910, when the important role of the fat knight was Antonio Scotti.

The cast last night was one of interesting proportions. Mme. Destinn sang the role of the fat knight, a role which she played so successfully in the past. She was accompanied by a fine orchestra.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

The opera company was directed by Mr. Verdi's last opera "Falstaff" was given by the Chicago Opera Company in the Lexington Theatre last night. It was the first presentation of the lyric comedy in this city by these visitors from the lake shore and it was a revival after a silence of ten years.

W. V. S. THORNE, FINANCIER DEAD

Director in Western Corporations Succumbs to Pneumonia.

William V. S. Thorne, financier, died at his home, 640 Park Avenue, yesterday of pneumonia. He was born in Middlebrook, N. Y., March 22, 1865, graduated from Yale in 1885, and the following year started his career as assistant engineer with the Great Northern Railroad.

His progress during the next nine years was rapid. From 1907 until 1909 he was associated with the late H. H. Hartman in the Southern Pacific and Union Pacific railroads, and during the next ten years was an important figure in Western railroading.

He was a director in the Southern Pacific and Union Pacific railroads, Western Express Company, Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation Company. He was also a director in other corporations.

Mr. Thorne was the second son of the late Samuel Thorne and Mrs. Phyllis Thorne. He was a member of the leading clubs of New York and nearby club colonies. He is survived by his wife, who was Mrs. J. Thorne Keyser, and three brothers, Edwin, Joel W. and Samuel Thorne.

DIED.

Anderson, K. E., son of K. E. Anderson, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Goodhart, M. J., son of M. J. Goodhart, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Gordon, O. J., son of O. J. Gordon, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

Griffin, M. J., son of M. J. Griffin, died at his home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

DIED.

McAvoy, Elizabeth, widow of Arthur A. McAvoy, died at her home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

McAvoy, Elizabeth, widow of Arthur A. McAvoy, died at her home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

McAvoy, Elizabeth, widow of Arthur A. McAvoy, died at her home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

McAvoy, Elizabeth, widow of Arthur A. McAvoy, died at her home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of 10 years.

McAvoy, Elizabeth, widow of Arthur A. McAvoy, died at her home, 100 West 10th St., New York, N. Y., on Feb. 6, 1920, at the age of